TO HOLD ALOOF FROM LEAGUE

Coolidge Urges American Entrance Into World Court.

ECONOMY POLICY AGAIN URGED

President In His Annual Message Favors Navy of Full Treaty Strength, an Adequate Army and Reconsideration of Whole Shipping Program and Opposes "Extensive Tinkering" With the Railroads.

Washington, Dec. 4.—President Coolidge in his annual message to congress declared that the government can do more to remedy the economic ills of the people by a system of rigid economy in public expenditure than can be accomplished through any other action.

He held that rigid economy by the present session of congress will pave the way during the next fiscal year for a reduction of taxes in conformity with scientific taxing principles. The president added that nothing is more likely to produce public confidence, the mainstay of prosperity, than a continuing policy of economy.

Recommendations made by the president included the following: Repeal of the publicity provision of the income tax law.

An adequate army and navy of full treaty strength, but with no armament race of any kind with any nation. (The public is advised to be "little impressed" by reports of what other nations are doing in this line.) American entrance into an international court of justice, but with specific reservations to the effect that the American government will not be bound by advisory opinions nor dragged into litigation without its consent.

Against World League.

That the United States should remain outside the league of nations and persistently refuse to assume the obligations imposed by its covenants. On the other hand, America is committed to the moral support of right, truth, justice and humanitarian efforts all over the world.

Some revision of existing immigration laws to allow those aliens already here more latitude in bringing their relatives. Law in principle necessary and sound.

Disposition of Muscle Shoals to private interests, either by outright sale or long-term lease, a subcommittee of congress to be appointed to consider bids. Disposition to be under rigid guarantee of commercial nitrogen production at reasonable prices for agricultural purposes.

No extensive tinkering with the railroads, but encouragement of further consolidations into fewer systems. If the railroad labor board can not be improved upon it should be left alone.

Reconsideration by congress of the whole government shipping program. Immediate requirement is transfer into emergency fleet corporation of the whole responsibility of operation of the fleet and other property, leaving to the shipping board solely the duty of determining certain major policies which require deliberate action.

Continued development of waterways and reclamation projects within the limits of the general economy program.

Some revision of judicial procedure to relieve court congestion and expedite justice.

Agricultural Ills.

Enactment of such legislative remedies for agricultural ills as are worked out by the recently-appointed agricultural commission and exertion of all efforts "by government activity and by private agencies to restore and maintain agriculture to a complete normal relationship with other industries."

Passage immediately of pending legislation based on the report of the reclamation fact finding commission "for the proper relief of those needing extension of time in which to meet their payments on irrigated land, and for additional amendments and reforms of our reclamation laws."

Conversion of prohibition enforcement officers and of the first three classes of postmasters into the civil service.

Sympathetic consideration of legislation for disabled veterans.

Extension of the life of the American debt funding commission now trying to fund the seven billion dollars unsecured war loans. President reiterates opposition to cancellation of debts.

world armaments and the other had reference to the outlawing of war. The president said:

"It has been and is my expectation that we might hopefully approach other great powers for further conference on this subject as soon as the carrying out of the present reparation plan as the established and settled policy of Europe has created a favorable opportunity. But on account of proposals which have already been made by other governments for a European conference, it will be necessary to wait to see what the outcome of their actions can be. I should not wish to propose or have representatives attend a conference which would contemplate commitments opposed to the freedom of action we desire to maintain unimpaired with respect to our purely domestic policies."

Proposals to outlaw aggressive warfare, the president asserted, should be carefully studied and sympathetically viewed.

Protection of Negroes.

The president also urged that steps be taken to accord to the negroes their full constitutional rights, that they should be protected from all of those impositions to which from their position they naturally fall a prey, especially from the crime of lynching; recommended prompt payment of the French spoliation claims; approved certain changes in court procedure to hasten the administration of justice; suggested establishment of federal reformatories for young men and women and first offenders, and of a national police bureau; and asked for suitable recognition to the world fliers.

In conclusion the president declared the present state of the Union "may be regarded with encouragement and satisfaction by every American." "Our domestic problems are for the most part economic," he said. "We have our enormous debt to pay and we are paying it. We have the high cost of government to diminish and we are diminishing it. We have a heavy burden of taxation to reduce and we are reducing it." The nation, he added, has definitely relinquished "the old standard of dealing with other countries by terror and force and is definitely committed to the new standard of dealing with them through friendship and understanding."

HINES SUBMITS REPORT

Admits Errors of Judgment in Administration of Bureau.

Washington, Dec. 4.—Admission of "errors of judgment" in the administration of the Veterans' bureau and statements of confidence that the period of experimentation is over, marked the annual report of General T. Hines, director of the bureau, submitted to congress. "It is true that difficulties have been encountered in administration, that errors in judgment have been made, but it is equally true that in an undertaking of the magnitude and complexity of veterans relief, these were to be expected," said Hines. "It is worthy of note that a background of good will has made the work of the bureau generally effective and little in the way of ill-advised criticism has served to nullify the results obtained."

New Ohio Postmasters.

Washington, Dec. 4.—President Coolidge nominated the following Ohio postmasters: Bolivar, John W. Keel; Edison, Millard F. Cunard; Empire, Jennie Fickes; Glencoe, Frank J. Patterson; Lower Salem, Blanche M. Lauer; Mount Blanchard, Ethel Shoemaker; Newton, Albert A. Sticksel; Bluffton, Maurice M. Murray; Canal Fulton, William H. Fellmeth; Washington C. H., Glenn B. Rodgers.

SHOWING FINEST EVER REPORTED

Position of State Banks Stronger Than Ever Before.

SCOTT ISSUES A STATEMENT

Resources Reach Total of $1,916,000,000, a Gain of $83,000,000 Over the Total For the Call of Last June. Gain of Nearly $78,000,000 Shown in Deposits During the Same Period—Banks' Combined Capital.

Columbus, Dec. 4.—In a statement given out today H. E. Scott, superintendent of banks of Ohio, based on returns made under the call of Oct. 10, 1924, asserts the position occupied by Ohio's state banks is stronger now than ever before. He says the showing made by these banks under this call is the finest ever reported to the department. The statement further says:

"Resources reached the unprecedented total of $1,916,237,424, a gain of more than $83,000,000 over the total for the call of June 30, 1924, and a gain of more than $194,000,000 over the total for the call of Sept. 14, 1923, these gains evidencing the enormous volume of business handled by banks. Deposits of all classes totaled $1,661,737,930, a gain of nearly $78,000,000 over the total for the call of June 30, 1924, and a gain of more than $176,000,000 over the total for the call of Sept. 14, 1923, these gains exceeding all expectations and setting new high levels.

"Savings deposits, which are included in the foregoing figures, totaled $774,035,135, a gain of more than $16,000,000 over the total for the call of June 30, 1924, and a gain of nearly $88,000,000 over the total for the call of Sept. 14, 1923. Time certificates (interest bearing deposits), also included in the figure for deposits, totaled $109,724,373, a gain of more than $6,000,000, and a gain of more than $9,000,000, respectively, for the two other calls.

"Loans and discounts totaled $1,88,978,290, an increase of approximately $107,000,000 in the preceding year. The increase in these items over the amount for the call of June 30, 1924, was $16,000,000. Real estate loans totaled $141,073,547, an increase of nearly $131,000,000 in a period of two years. Through these loans the banks effectively aided building operations and agricultural interests.

"While increasing their assets, bond holdings and reserves, banks have been decreasing their liabilities, this being shown by the reduction in the totals of bills payable, bonds borrowed, bills payable with federal reserve bank, notes and bills rediscounted, and rediscounts with federal reserve bank, from $23,209,607 at the call of June 30, 1924, to $18,545,579 at the call of Oct. 10, 1924.

"The combined capital of the 747 banks reporting Oct. 10, 1924, was $112,351,180, an increase of $2,785,000 since June 30, 1924, and an increase of nearly $9,000,000 in one year."

CLASH OVER WAR CLAIMS

Great Britain and United States in Diplomatic Controversy.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The United States and Great Britain face a sharp diplomatic conflict over payment of America's $500,000,000 war claims against Germany out of the Dawes reparations fund. Great Britain has refused to recognize this country's right to such payment on a parity with other allied nations and the United States is determined not to compromise on its rights. Britain's action has amazed official Washington and the greatest surprise was expressed when Colonel James A. Logan, American financial observer in Paris, reported to the state department the postponement of the financial conference, which was to reallocate reparation receipts and cover American claims.

Two Auto Victims.

Toledo, Dec. 4.—Elmer Armentrout, 45, and Clarence Schuchert, 9, died here as the result of two automobile accidents. Armentrout was hurled into a ditch when his machine was struck by another car. The Schuchert lad was killed when his slid in front of an automobile.

Coolidge In Chicago.

Chicago, Dec. 4.—President Coolidge and party arrived here today from Washington on a regularly scheduled train, with the same accommodations that might be obtained by any private citizen. The president will speak at the International Live Stock exposition.

Sixteen counties are included in the Columbus district and in 1920, the last census, 41,889 farms were listed in the district. Counties included are: Adams, Fairfield, Fayette, Franklin, Highland, Hocking, Jackson, Lawrence, Licking, Madison, Perry, Pickaway, Pike, Ross, Scioto and Vinton.

Marysville, O., Dec. 4.—Suit to contest the election of George W. Crandell, Republican, as commissioner at the November election, has been filed in common pleas court by his opponent, John W. Howison, who was defeated by 33 votes. Howison alleges that in 14 of the 40 voting precincts votes were counted for Crandell that should have been credited to him because of scratched tickets.

Another Victim of Fumes.

Columbus, Dec. 4.—The third fatality here due to effects of carbon monoxide exhausted from automobile engines in closed garages during the past few weeks was reported when the body of Abraham W. Levinson, a building contractor, aged 34, was found in the garage in the rear of the Levinson home by his wife.

Face Ground to Pulp.

Tiffin, O., Dec. 4.—Ernest Miller, 22, of Republic, is in a hospital here near death, with his face ground to a pulp as the result of an accident on his father's farm. TO ASK SOLONS FOR MILLIONS

Highway Department Has Big Road Building Program.

MAINTENANCE ALSO INCLUDED

Sum of $43,500,000 to Be Requested to Carry Out the Enterprise, Which Would Leave Only 1,500 Miles of Unpaved Roads in the State Highway System of 10,000 Miles—Legislature to Be Given the Details.

Columbus, Dec. 4.—An extensive program of road building and maintenance is planned by the state highway department, which will ask the Ohio legislature to appropriate $43,500,000 to carry out the enterprise.

Twenty million dollars is asked for new roads alone in the highway department's program, which, if approved by the general assembly and completed, will leave only 1,500 miles of unpaved roads in the state road system of 10,000 miles, officials say, and most of this unpaved section either will be improved with gravel or in sections seldom traveled except by scattered residents of the locality.

Officials plan to build 2,000 miles of road, 100 of them gravel, with this money and that which they will receive from counties and the federal government. In addition $23,000,000 is asked for maintenance and repairs, $12,000,000 to be spent the first year, and $11,000,000 the next. This will be used for resurfacing, widening and grade-crossing elimination, along with repairing travel-worn pavements.

For the first time in history, the exact location of every road, bridge, grade-crossing elimination or improvement of any nature contemplated by the department will be furnished the solons, along with information as to the cost, type of improvement, and reasons for its necessity. This information was assembled by representatives of the department and of the Ohio Good Roads federation, who, in the last year, visited 85 of the 88 counties in the state, conferring with local officials and determining what was needed in every locality. Although at first glance the amount asked seems prohibitive, officials say they consulted representatives and senators in all of the counties visited, and that the legislators are in favor of the program, which will be subject to their approval or rejection.

Approval of a bond issue, the "passing it on to the next generation" method; enactment of a gasoline tax, or provision for an additional state levy, are methods suggested for obtaining the revenue.

STORY OF WITNESS

Thompson Said to Have Dictated How Much to Bid for Contracts.

Chicago, Dec. 4.—A. H. Crump of Philadelphia testified in the Forbes-Thompson contract case that John W. Thompson, millionaire St. Louis contractor, "dictated" to his "experts" how much to bid for contracts to build government hospitals. Crump, secretary-treasurer of the defunct Pontiac Construction company of Detroit, said he was called to Washington to estimate the cost of building a veterans' hospital at Northampton, Mass. After figuring for several days, he said he submitted his bid to Thompson, who look it over and then ordered him to change it to a higher figure. The Pontiac bid "dictated" by Thompson, and higher than several others submitted to the Veterans bureau, was successful and this firm was awarded the contract, witness said.

New Buildings For Ohio Towns.

Washington, Dec. 4.—Appropriations of $115,000 for a new government building at Urbana and a like amount for one at Washington C. H., O., are included in an omnibus bill introduced in the senate by Senator Fletcher of Florida, member of the building committee.

Crew Rescued.

Sturgeon Bay, Wis., Dec. 4.—The steamer Lakeland of Cleveland, went down in Lake Michigan about five miles outside the harbor here. The crew of 30 men were saved by the freighter Ann Arbor, which stood by as the vessel went down. The Lakeland, which was built in 1887, had a tonnage of 2,245 tons and was 280 feet long and 40 feet deep.

When Peter Kiseonis, 12, New York, arrived at school he was so severely bruised he was taken to a hospital. Peter said he had been slow to awaken and his father had used a hammer to get him up.

OHIO REPORTS GAIN

Census Bureau Says State Is Not Running Into Debt.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The state of Ohio is not going into debt on its current running expenses, but to the contrary showed a profit of $1.31 per capita for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1923, according to a statement by the census bureau. Total revenue receipts of the state for that year were $20,202,077 more than the total payments for the year, exclusive of the payments for permanent improvements and $7,950,855 more than the total payments, including those for permanent improvements.

Ohio's total outlays for expenses, interest and other expenditures during the year were $2,260,700, or $8.02 per resident. Of this total $38,106,344 was cost of operating the general departments of the state government; $94,418 cost of public service enterprises; $1,808,746 interest on the debt and $12,251,192 outlays for permanent improvements, including those for public service enterprises.

Auditors Favor Gasoline Tax.

Columbus, Dec. 4.—The Ohio County Auditors' association, meeting here, decided to urge the next legislature to pass a gasoline tax. John A. Zangerle, Cuyahoga county auditor, was the principal speaker for the tax, declaring in Cleveland alone 146,000 automobiles escape paying tax as personal property. The auditors also favored a statute raising the minimum salary of county auditors to $2,500.

The inspectors were instructed to watch drivers for credentials and badges, and also to report incidents where persons who are cripples or otherwise incapacitated are driving. The Freeman-Collister act provides that a person must be 21 years of age, an American citizen and have proper medical certification of his mental and physical capabilities.

Wasting Light.
A lighting expert says that about $200,000,000 worth of light is wasted every year in this country through failure to keep windows, globes, reflectors and other light sources free from dust and dirt. The lighting bill for the nation is about $500,000,000, and if this expert is right we are wasting two-fifths of this.

The SPIRIT of CHRISTMAS

THE Spirit of Christmas is a difficult thing to analyze or define. It is too deeply rooted in the hearts of people—too firmly imbedded in tradition to be questioned or doubted. It has lived through disaster, wars, revolutions, pestilence—it will endure as long as the world endures. And, since the gift-laden Wise Men of the East followed the Star, the outward manifestation of the Spirit of Christmas has been the giving of gifts.

This Spirit is not necessarily confined to individuals. It may inspire a business organization as well—and this institution is so inspired. We, too, are anxious to give.

Our gifts to you are the most efficient and willing service that is humanly possible, friendly helpfulness, tireless courtesy and the finest of furniture at the smallest possible cost. We are anxious to give more than can rightfully be expected of any store—and your first visit will convince you that here, indeed, is a store that is filled with the Spirit of Christmas.

AMUSEMENTS

No Harold Lloyd picture would be complete without a thrill of one nature or another. And "Hot Water," which is showing now at the Met theater, is no exception to this rule. Although a story of domestic life, "Hot Water," contains several incidents destined to send a chill thru the most blasé audience, as well as to arouse the loudest laughs heard in a theater since the sidesplitting chase episodes in "Girl Shy."

In one sequence of the picture, Lloyd takes his wife and her family out for a ride in his new Butterfly Six and what happens to that machine is a caution to behold. Everything that possibly could happen to it did, and then some!

This episode is only one of the three big laughing factions into which "Hot Water" is divided. There is just enough plot in the new Lloyd opus to hold the incidents together in one trend of thought, but that is just what Lloyd and his staff set out to do. "Hot Water" is one continuous string of "gags," with the imagination being heavily drawn upon for their originality.

Jobyna Ralston, Lloyd's beautiful leading lady in "Why Worry" and "Girl Shy" heads the supporting cast. Josephine Crowell, a veteran of the screen and one of its great artists is the mother-in-law. Charles Stevenson, best known for his work as the Bully in "Grandma Boy" and the conductor in "Girl Shy" portrays the lazy brother-in-law and Mickey McBan his brother in real life, interprets the part of a trouble making youngster.

Sam Taylor and Fred Newmeyer handled the direction, with the plot the work of Taylor, Thomas J. Gray, Tim Whelan and John Grey.

MILITARY CAMPSTRAINED 275,000*Reports to Major General Hines Show Work of Last Summer.

Washington.—More than 250,000 men received some degree of intensive military training under the War department's supervision last summer. The exact number shown in reports now before Maj. Gen. John L. Hines, chief of staff, was 275,030, of whom 23,250 were officers and the remainder enlisted personnel.

The bulk of the training was in the National Guard camps, where a total of 156,515 men and officers were in attendance. The turnout of organized reserves amounted to 8,706, of whom all but 462 were officers. The reserve officers' training corps contributed 7,012 to the grand total and the citizens' military training camps 33,998, bringing the total number of men to be graduated from these camps since they were first established on a post-war basis up to 70,000.

Second Lieutenants Needed.

It has been estimated that 10,000 young men must come into the corps annually as second lieutenants if it is to be kept at adequate strength, and the reserve officers' training corps is expected ultimately to produce 7,000 of these young reserve officers a year, the other 3,000 to come from the citizen camps, regular army, National Guard and other sources.

There are in the colleges and schools of the country 325 units of the reserve officers' training corps, with a total enrollment at the close of the last school year of 103,894 under training. From this source in the last five years, up to September 4 of this year a total of 9,817 second lieutenants had been commissioned in the reserve corps. The number actually at the camps, 33,983 for 30 days, was a big increase over last year, while the number of applications received amounted to 53,000. Of that number 44,000 proved to have the physical and other qualifications necessary for admission, so that approximately 10,000 youngsters were disappointed in their hope to go through a training camp course last summer.

Unit Training Effectuated.

A phase of the organized reserve corps work during the summer to which the War department attaches particular importance is the application for the first time of the principle of unit training to these organizations. Under that practice a very considerable number of reserve officers assigned to specific units of the organized reserve were given the opportunity to get together with their comrades officers of the same units and to function as a team under their own officers in dealing with mobilization problems such as reception, organization, equipment and preliminary training of the men they would command in war.

The Defense day test, on the face of official reports from all over the country, served to bring out sharply the benefit of this unit training scheme. War department officials say. The striking success of that test, from a purely military point of view, it is stated, lay in the efficiency displayed by these groups of reserve officers in handling the limited mobilization in their own areas.

Troops Out for BabyPrince Arouse Opposition

Belgrade, Yugo-Slavia.—Celebration of the first anniversary of the birth of Prince Peter, heir to the Yugo-Slavian throne, was made the occasion of a great military display, which has aroused much opposition in several quarters.

All the troops of the Belgrade garrisons were turned out, and the principal streets leading to the cathedral, where ceremonies were held, were lined with infantry, with the soldiers wearing steel shell helmets, while the side streets near the edifice were full of small artillery, machine guns and other warlike material.

The country is indeed quite proud of the year-old prince, and his recent pictures, showing clearly that he has the traditional Karageorg nose, have been placed on sale everywhere.

To Colonize Subtropical Valley Amid Snow and Ice

Seattle, Wash.—A subtropical valley in northern British Columbia, ringed in with glaciers and perpetual snows, is to be colonized next year, according to S. C. Scotte, the discoverer, who is now in Seattle.

The valley is 480 miles inland, almost inaccessible, and contains abundant game," said Mr. Scotte. "The temperature never gets below zero and freezing temperature is rare. Berries and wild fruits grow in profusion. "I encountered several species of wild animals never seen before. The most curious was a large white deer weighing about 600 pounds. It had a horn on one side of the head.

Hoped to the Last

Montreal.—When Giuseppe Serafini, youngest of the four Hochelaga bank bandits hanged here, walked to the scaffold he carried in the sole of a shoe three slender steel saws. It became known. The saws were discovered when the Italian's footwear was examined after his body had been cut down. How the saws came to Serafini's possession has not yet been ascertained.

MISS DUNLAP GOING ABROAD.

Miss Flora Dunlap of Des Moines, Iowa, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Dunlap, for a few weeks, sails Saturday for New York, for a trip abroad. She will join Colonel and Mrs. Brown, former Iowa acquaintances, at New York. They expect to go directly to Paris, for several days and then on to Rome, Italy, for Christmas. After spending some time in Italy, she will go to Geneva, Switzerland, for a few weeks to visit friends and attend an important meeting in connection with her welfare work. Later on, she will go to Spain and northern Africa for several weeks' sojourn.

Christmas Box Nuisance.

The Christmas box was at one time greatly in evidence—so much in evidence that it finally became an intolerable nuisance, and the people rose up in rebellion against it. At Christmas time hordes of boys and journeymen and apprentices crowded the shops and ran about the streets in certain parts of England begging coins for the small boxes they carried. One can readily imagine how much of a nuisance the boy might make himself under such circumstances.

TED LEWIS

King of Jazz Got Idea of Syncopation From Cricket Smith.

Jazz didn't come from New Orleans at all, nor from dear old Tennessee nor Alabama. Jazz came from Cricket Smith's little barber shop in Circleville, Ohio.

Ted Lewis, whose saxophone has phone has sighed and moaned on the night life of every big city between New York and Los Angeles, and who modestly accepts the title "King of Jazz," made these claims today in the course of a long defense of Jazz as the characteristic music of the United States.

"I am generally credited with being the originator of jazz," Lewis said. "I got my idea for syncopation from a negro barber, 'Cricket' Smith, in Circleville, Ohio, where I was born.

"Led by 'Cricket,' the barbers used to sing their songs when business was slack. The peculiar rhythm and colorful effect of their songs struck me and I tried the same thing with my saxophone and clarinet. It was a novelty. The good folks of my home town thought I might 'get over it' in time. "I finally landed on small-time vaudeville in Ohio, using the stuff that 'Cricket' Smith had taught me. I lasted one week and that experience kept up for three or four years, altho I never once deviated from the syncopation which I had learned from 'Cricket.' Then Jazz caught on with the masses and the music lovers couldn't see it.

"But judging from my own experience, the gradual recognition which has been accorded jazz points to its authenticity as real music and to its genuine American qualities."

"Cricket" died about a year ago in a Columbus hospital.—Columbus Citizen.

The Jazz King, Ted Lewis, (Theodore Friedman) son of Mrs. Ben Friedman, spent his boyhood in this city and is one of the boys who has ridden to fame in the musical world on the crest of the popular wave of jazz music which he originated and exemplifies.

Blank applications for municipal civil service examinations may be secured at the office of the secretary, J. A. McLaughlin. 5dec5.

CAKES with that "fresh air" taste

Delicious—and so beautiful in their even shape and coloring. And little wonder! For they were baked with "fresh air"—in the wonderful oven of the Estate Gas Range. The fumes of burning gas never enter this oven—only fresh air, heated and sterilized by the exclusive Estate method, touches the food.

And this heated fresh air is distributed so uniformly throughout the oven that no matter in what part you place your baking, the same uniform results are certain. No "pot-watching", no shifting pans—the oven ends all this worry.

Decide today you'll be one of the many thousands of good cooks using the Estate. We'll gladly show you the range and all its features.

Sick Poultry Can Be Cured Any Season of the Year.

Circleville, O., R. F. D. 6, September 29, 1924.

Mrs. Edward H. Wardell, winner of Grand Sweep Stakes for best dozen eggs in show in Ohio State university, held February, 1924, says:

Mr. F. L. Fickardt, Dear Sir:—
I am only too glad to recommend Fickardt's Roup and Cholera Drops to any one interested in poultry, as the best preventative for contagious diseases I know of, on the market today. About three years ago cholera broke out in my flock of young chickens, which were then about six weeks old, and weighing about 1 1/2 pounds. There were 175 birds in this flock. As soon as I discovered they were sick I began treating them according to instructions of a specialist. I only lost eleven out of 175, and checked the disease in about three days. At that time Fickardt's Roup and Cholera Drops was recommended to me as a wonderful medicine to be used as a preventive of contagious diseases. At that time I began using the Drops and have not had an epidemic since, altho I lose one or two now and then from common causes such as apoplexy, egg-bound, etc. I begin giving it to the chicks when they are quite young and from that time on they are never without it. At the present time I am shipping two cases of eggs a week and have been for the last six months, from my flock of 180 hens and I attribute this high egg production to the healthy condition of my flock. I always grade and candle my eggs and I have attained such a degree of perfection that I have less than three per cent of my eggs that do not run over the specified weight of 24 ounces to the dozen. Sincerely,

Mrs. Edward H. Wardell.

Fickardt's Roup and Cholera Drops Is a remedy for Roup, Colds, sneezing, Canker, Limber neck, Chickenpox, White Diarrhoea, Indigestion and bowel complaints. Price 50 cents.

BENZOL GAS

"The King of Motor Fuel"

It's a fact that Caldwell and Taylor's Benzol Gas gives much greater mileage than gasoline. Scientific tests prove it. Motorists quickly discover it because they find that the intervals between fillings are longer.

Caldwell and Taylor's Benzol Gas is truly the king of motor fuels. Quicker pickup than any gasoline produced, lower motor temperatures and freedom from motor knocks are characteristics of its performance.

Its popularity is increasing by leaps and bounds. Most motorists who try it will not return to the use of gasoline again.

The most convincing arguments for its use is in the satisfaction you will receive when you try it. Give Benzol a chance to prove its value in your motor.
